

Brand deck

Engineer · mathematician · game-builder

Hard ideas, made usable.

A personal maker brand built around clarity, curiosity, persistence, and the pleasure of making difficult things understandable.

The human voice.

The maker handle.

One lambda. Two ways of arriving.

POSITIONING

Engineer. Mathematician. Game-builder.

For people who value fast interfaces, elegant systems, and work that can explain itself.

AUDIENCES

Collaborators · recruiters · learners · curious builders

Notice the detail. Sit with the hard problem. Understand its parts. Remove what is unnecessary. Build the smallest clear system that works.

From bookmarks and broken radios to mathematics, code, games, and communities — the through-line is disciplined curiosity.

CORE VALUES

- 01 Clarity before cleverness
- 02 Curiosity with follow-through
- 03 Persistence without theater
- 04 Human range
- 05 Play with purpose

Quietly exact.
Visibly curious.
Always useful.

The work should feel engineered, but never sterile; personal, but never indulgent; playful, but never careless.

Bring the hard problem.
